A HOME FOR THE

MODERN MUSTANG

INTRODUCTION

It is axiomatic that every publication has a message to deliver. That contained in Hoofbeats '56 is a simple one. It is a story of four classes and their years! Four years of progress, of change, of reaching toward maturity.

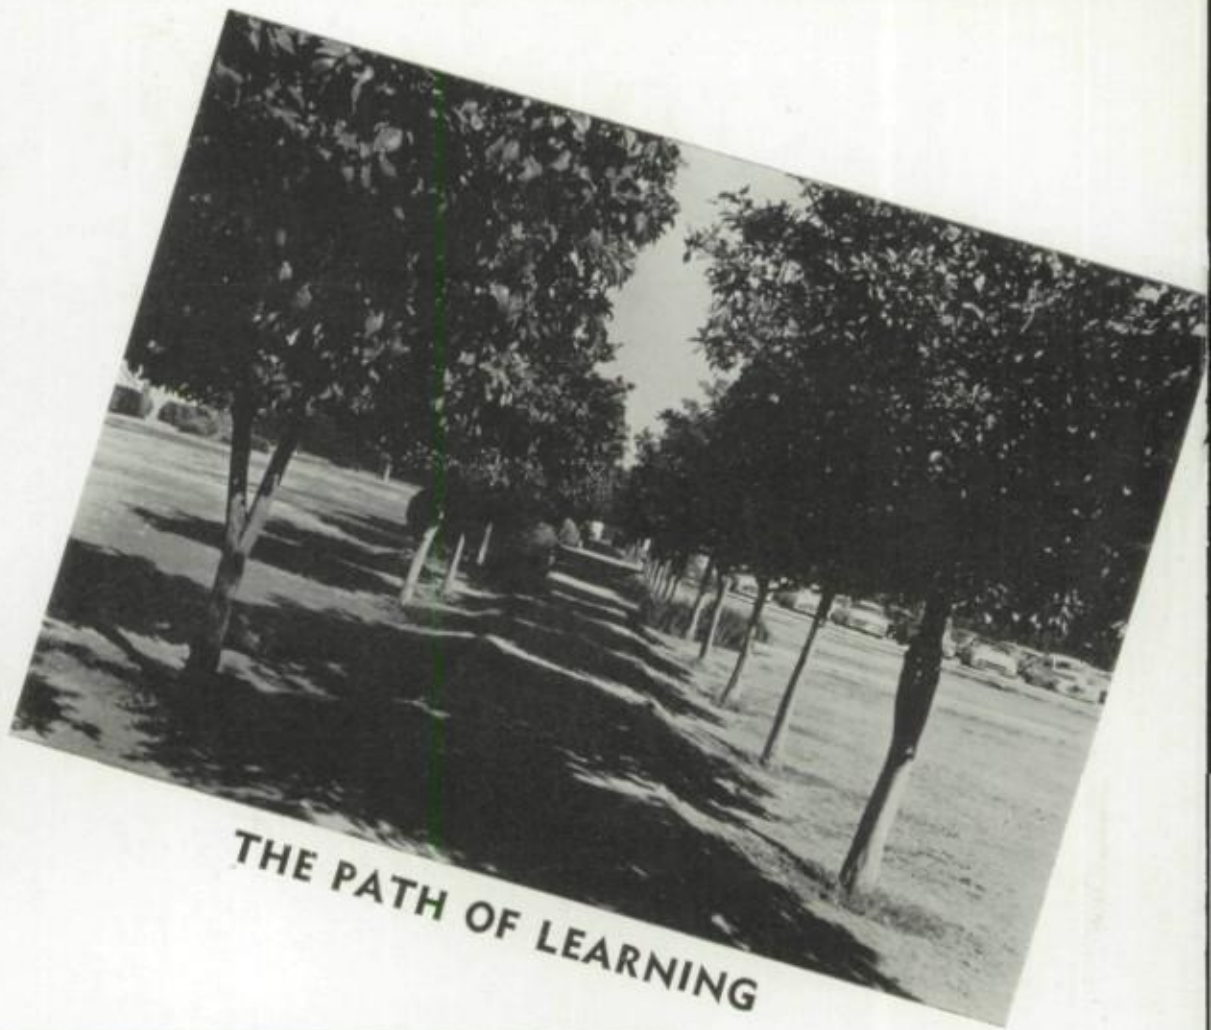

This year Hoofbeats '56 is presented in a new form, a form equal to the ideas it hopes to express. To express this idea the Hoofbeats Staff has selected as their theme "THE MODERN MUSTANG."

The major theme, "THE MODERN MUSTANG," is handled in several different ways throughout the Annual. It is to be found on the stylized drawing on the cover, the bright colored section pages, and the modern type used in this volume.

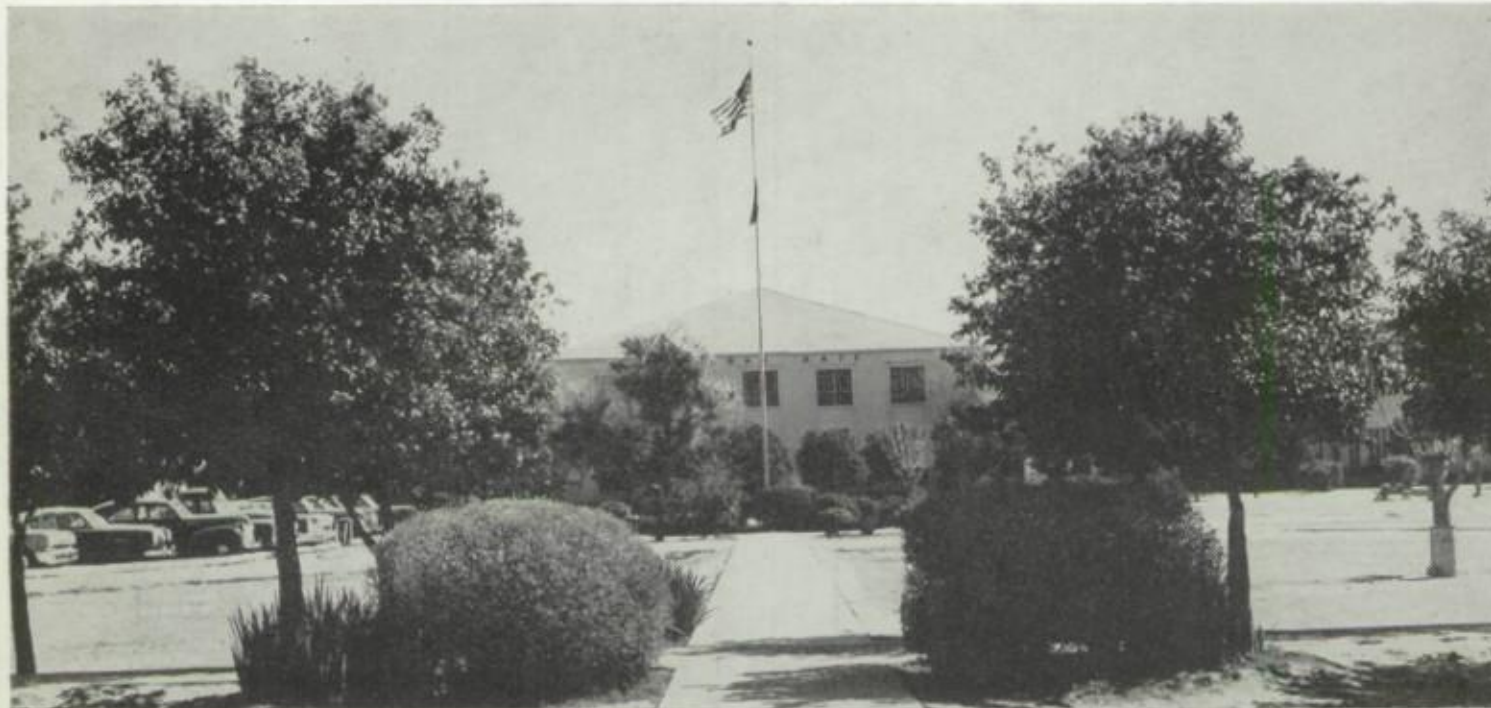

Therefore with pride . . . we present Hoofbeats '56 . . . an experiment in the modern form and a history of a year.

IN FOND MEMORY

All important knowledge does not come from textbooks. Indeed, a great many of life's important lessons are learned from people.

Miss Beulah Twist, who taught typing at North High for many years, died last year as a result of cancer. Seven years before her untimely death, Miss Twist realized the seriousness of her illness and that soon she would die. Facing reality courageously, she continued her teaching career at North High until last summer at the time of her death.

To both the teachers and students who knew Miss Twist and those who have heard of her, she stands as a symbol of courage.

To her memory we humbly dedicate Hoofbeats of 1956.

CAT-THEY -

I really want to go
you, getting down to Europe. - don't forget to bring me something.
Good luck in everything
Love Jim & Bird

Kathy I hope

. . . SERVICE

FACULTY FUN

OPEN HOUSE

The pictures on the opposite page were taken at faculty party based on the western theme. Everybody seems to be relaxing and enjoying themselves after a hard day of teaching.

These three pictures were taken at open house where parents and teachers have a chance to get to know each other. Parents also get a chance to learn just how their son or daughter is doing. The results of these get-togethers usually benefit all concerned.

CUSTODIANS:
FIRST ROW: Mr. K. Melheim, Mr. J. Allmindinger, Mr. J. Lawhend, Mr. R. Forrest.
SECOND ROW: Mr. C. Christenson, Mr. W. Pleck, Mr. J. Ward, Mr. V. White.
THIRD ROW: Mr. M. Rusted, Mr. G. Hamn, Mr. J. May, Mr. J. Janik.

BOILER ROOM: Mr. Mike Feihle takes care of the boiler room and makes sure that the school is well heated during the cold months.

The custodians and cafeteria workers do much toward keeping many things in school running smoothly and efficiently. They are the people behind the scenes who you seldom hear about. It is because of them that the campus is clean every morning and that there is something to eat every noon. These people help out in many student affairs, such as dances, dinners and other activities. We owe them a vote of thanks for the fine job they have done during the past year.

North High's class of '59 seems to be measuring up to the standards set by the classes before them.

Freshmen for the first time in the history of North High staged and presented a talent assembly including only students from their class.

To begin the year and acquaint freshmen, a mixer, sponsored by the Boys' Alliance, was given in the Mustang Corral. Freshmen participated in this affair and made it a great success.

Freshmen made up the basis of the Pep Club this year and were active members of such school clubs as the social committee, corral board and cafeteria board.

Freshmen joined the upperclassmen in forming Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y groups, which are affiliated with the Y.M.C.A.

North High's freshmen are an active group and participate in all school sports, clubs and activities.

TO BILL DEMPSEY

The Hoofbeats wishes to extend special recognition to Bill Dempsey, a victim of polio for six years before his death.

Bill had been bed-ridden for many years. A homebound student, he was to have graduated with the senior class this year.

An avid pen-pal, Bill spoke up this year when the school board was considering the substitution of a correspondence program for the homebound student.

Bill will be remembered as an example of courage and fortitude for which North High can be proud to have been a part.

FAREWELL: CLASS OF '56

The class of '56 gave the first sport dance of the year. "Seventeen" was well-attended for more than one reason. Aside from the fact that it was the first sport dance of the year, seniors turned out because it was the beginning of a year of "lasts" for them. The profit from this dance enabled the class council to plan a busy schedule. Next on the autumn calendar was sponsoring a movie.

Plans were started in November for post-Christmas holiday events. But time was taken out by most seniors to attend their Thanksgiving Day football game as North High students. Not disappointed by the results, seniors returned to school until the Christmas vacation interrupted with numerous festivities. Two weeks after a vacation, a small number from many talented seniors were chosen to represent the class in the annual Senior Talent Assembly. With Bill Evans as Master of Ceremonies, and sparkling performances by all students in the show, it was a colorful success. Following the talent show, still in January, came the seniors' semi-formal dance, "Memories Are Made of This". Featured in the decorations were the results of the senior "most" elections.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENT

Lisbon, Portugal, appears as the home address of one North Phoenix High School student. Francisco Rebello de Andrade, better known to his classmates as Chico, is this year's foreign exchange representative on our campus.

Although in the United States for only one year, Francisco speaks English almost as well as one native born. His activities at North Phoenix include Senior Council, Student Council and Boys' Alliance Cabinet. Many of his artistic efforts have met with unequalled success by his winning of numerous gold keys and medals.

NORTH'S SALAD BOWL ATTENDANTS

North High's decision in the selecting of Salad Bowl Princess was broadened by the Executive Committee's plan to have our Student Body nominate ten girls from either the Junior or Senior class. These ten girls were then to be presented and interviewed by Student Body President, Brent Cardwell, in an all school assembly. The Student Body would vote again reducing their selection to four girls. These four girls would appear before a panel of judges consisting of faculty and students, who would in turn select North High's representative to the Salad Bowl festivities.

NORTH HIGH'S TEN NOMINATIONS FOR SALAD BOWL PRINCESS: Harlene Miller, Donna Riggs, Jeanne Abromovitz, Jo Ann Robert, C. Thomas, Louise Lyman, Georgann Lucas, Sharon Baldwin, Gracie Fahlen and Dolores Bonus.

Salad Bowl Princess, Carole Thomas, brought honor to herself and the North High campus. One of the contestants, she rated in the top four, consequently being an attendant to the Queen, Denise Rowland. Her many activities while representing our school included attending a luncheon sponsored by the Kiwanians and a dance at the ABC Club where the Queen was chosen.

NORTH HI BATTALIONS CHOOSE SPONSORS

A new idea this year in the Military Department was the selection of girls to sponsor the various units. The idea was originally thought of by former Professor of Military Science and Tactics Richard M. Jennings during the school year 1954-55. This year the cadets elected the sponsors early in the year. Carole Thomas was selected as battalion sponsor, Donna Riggs was chosen as sponsor of Company A, and Sharon Baldwin was picked as Company B sponsor. The girls were presented to the student body at the Armistice (Veterans') Day assembly on November 10.

The sponsors represented the North High ROTC battalion at all of the military events during the year which were: Military Night on May 4, Federal Inspection on April 19, and the Military Ball on February 25.

MILITARY QUEEN CHOSEN

As the North High Battalions turn out each Wednesday for their weekly inspection, three North beauties troop the line along with the inspecting officers. Carole Thomas, North Phoenix's Military Queen, and the two battalion sponsors, Donna Riggs and Sharon Baldwin, make weekly checkups on the shined brass and starched uniforms.

Carole reigned as Military Queen at the North High Armistice Day festivities.

IT'S SPIRIT

Football season brings added enthusiasm to the North High campus. Not only do the games bring pleasure but they are a good lesson in sportsmanship. It takes a team, a co-operative student body, spirited Pom-pom and Cheerleading squads and our famous Mustang band, to complete one of our football games. This year's games brought an extra treat for the crowd as our Pom-pom girls and Cheerleaders spent many hours preparing original yells and dance routines. Our football team displayed their ability by winning games. Although we lost and tied games our wins and losses were taken with good sportsmanship.

This year's pep assemblies were brought to a highlight by the antics of our two favorite comedians, Jon Flach and Wendell Clutz. Every Friday Jon and Wendell, with the aid of a few friends, had a different stunt to present in the assembly. From Pom-pom girls to Cheerleaders, Salad Bowl Princess to advertisements for various organizations on campus our students were entertained and amused. To add variety, Pep Club President, Jim Waldron, did the announcing while our Cheerleaders and Pom-pom girls prepared the Student Body for our weekly Friday night football games. Through our assemblies more pep and spirit were shown at both home and away games giving our team the necessary drive.

MOTHERS AT TEA

The ground was green with newly emerged tender shoots of grass. The sky was empty of even the threat of a storm, while the fireplace awaited the symbolic yule log. The sweet aroma of pine cone, fir tree and the clean sharp bite of wind were not present in that December day's air. But even though there was no snow, nor sleighs with melodious bells, there was the dancing music of "Jingle Bells".

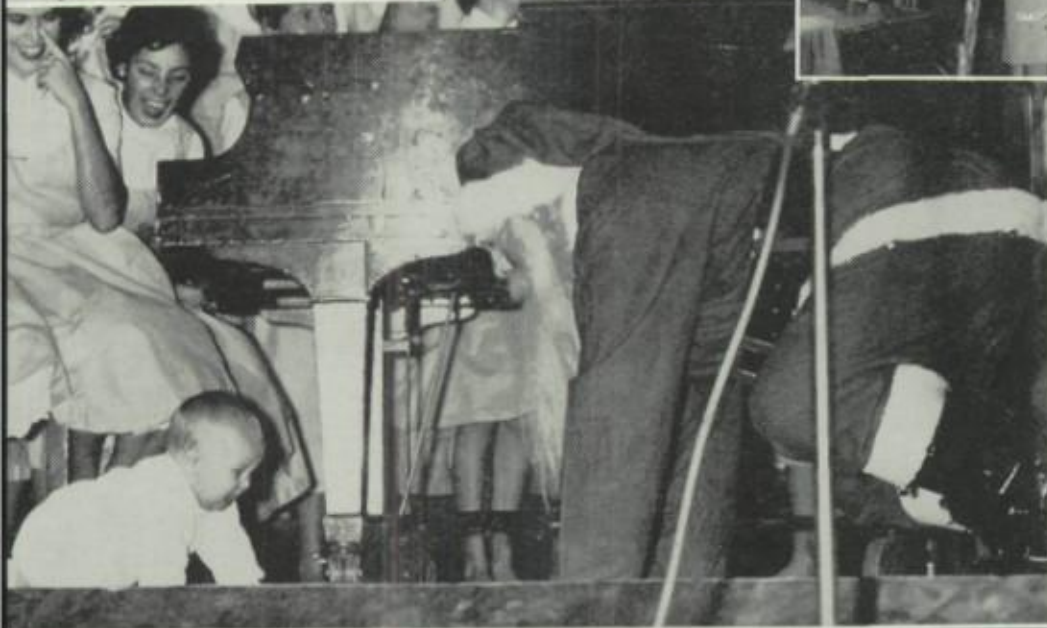

And there were the peaceful hymns and the spirit of an old-fashioned Christmas as the Girls' League sponsored its annual tea.

With the Mustang Corral as its setting and an old-fashioned Christmas as its theme the annual Mother-Daughter Tea was a success.

The decorations of holly set about a large fully lighted tree were planned by Adele Bradford's decorations committee, while Diane Kleinman arranged for the vocal entertainment. The invitations committee was headed by Anita Ruthling, and Carole Lee Cupp, senior representative, chairmaned the refreshments committee.

At the year's first Talent Assembly, the Junior Class provided a variety of entertainment.

Several jazz selections were presented by the Four Cats and a Kitten Band. "I'm Going Away with the Men in the Little White Coats," a humorous pantomime, was acted out by Charlann Sheid.

Louise Lyman, Alliene Hymes and Joan Martin, three Junior Pom-pon girls, danced to a Caribbean rhythm.

The quartette of Jerry Lundeen, Bruce McLaughlin, Bud Bierman and Taylor Fawcett sang in Barbershop harmony.

The Junior Class' presentation opened the way for the other three classes and their talent.

With the initiation of the new school policy of a separate talent assembly for each class, the Senior class finally received its chance to present its roster of talent.

Filling in the number two spot on the program of assemblies, the seniors provided a variety of acts. There was Danny Miller pantomiming "I'm Rolling," Karen Ladendorff, playing a classical selection on the piano and Florence Guenther blowing the horn and toe dancing.

Pom-pon Girls, Jacque Semon, Carole Thomas, Judy Ghatt, Harlene Miller, Sue McDaniel, Dolores Bonus, Jo Ann Robert, and Donna Riggs danced to a version of "Pink Hell". The Six Chicks from the Sticks, Joan Willis, Joan Day, Margaret Evans, Georgann Lucas, Gail Marsh, and Virginia McFarlane presented a Hayseed dance.

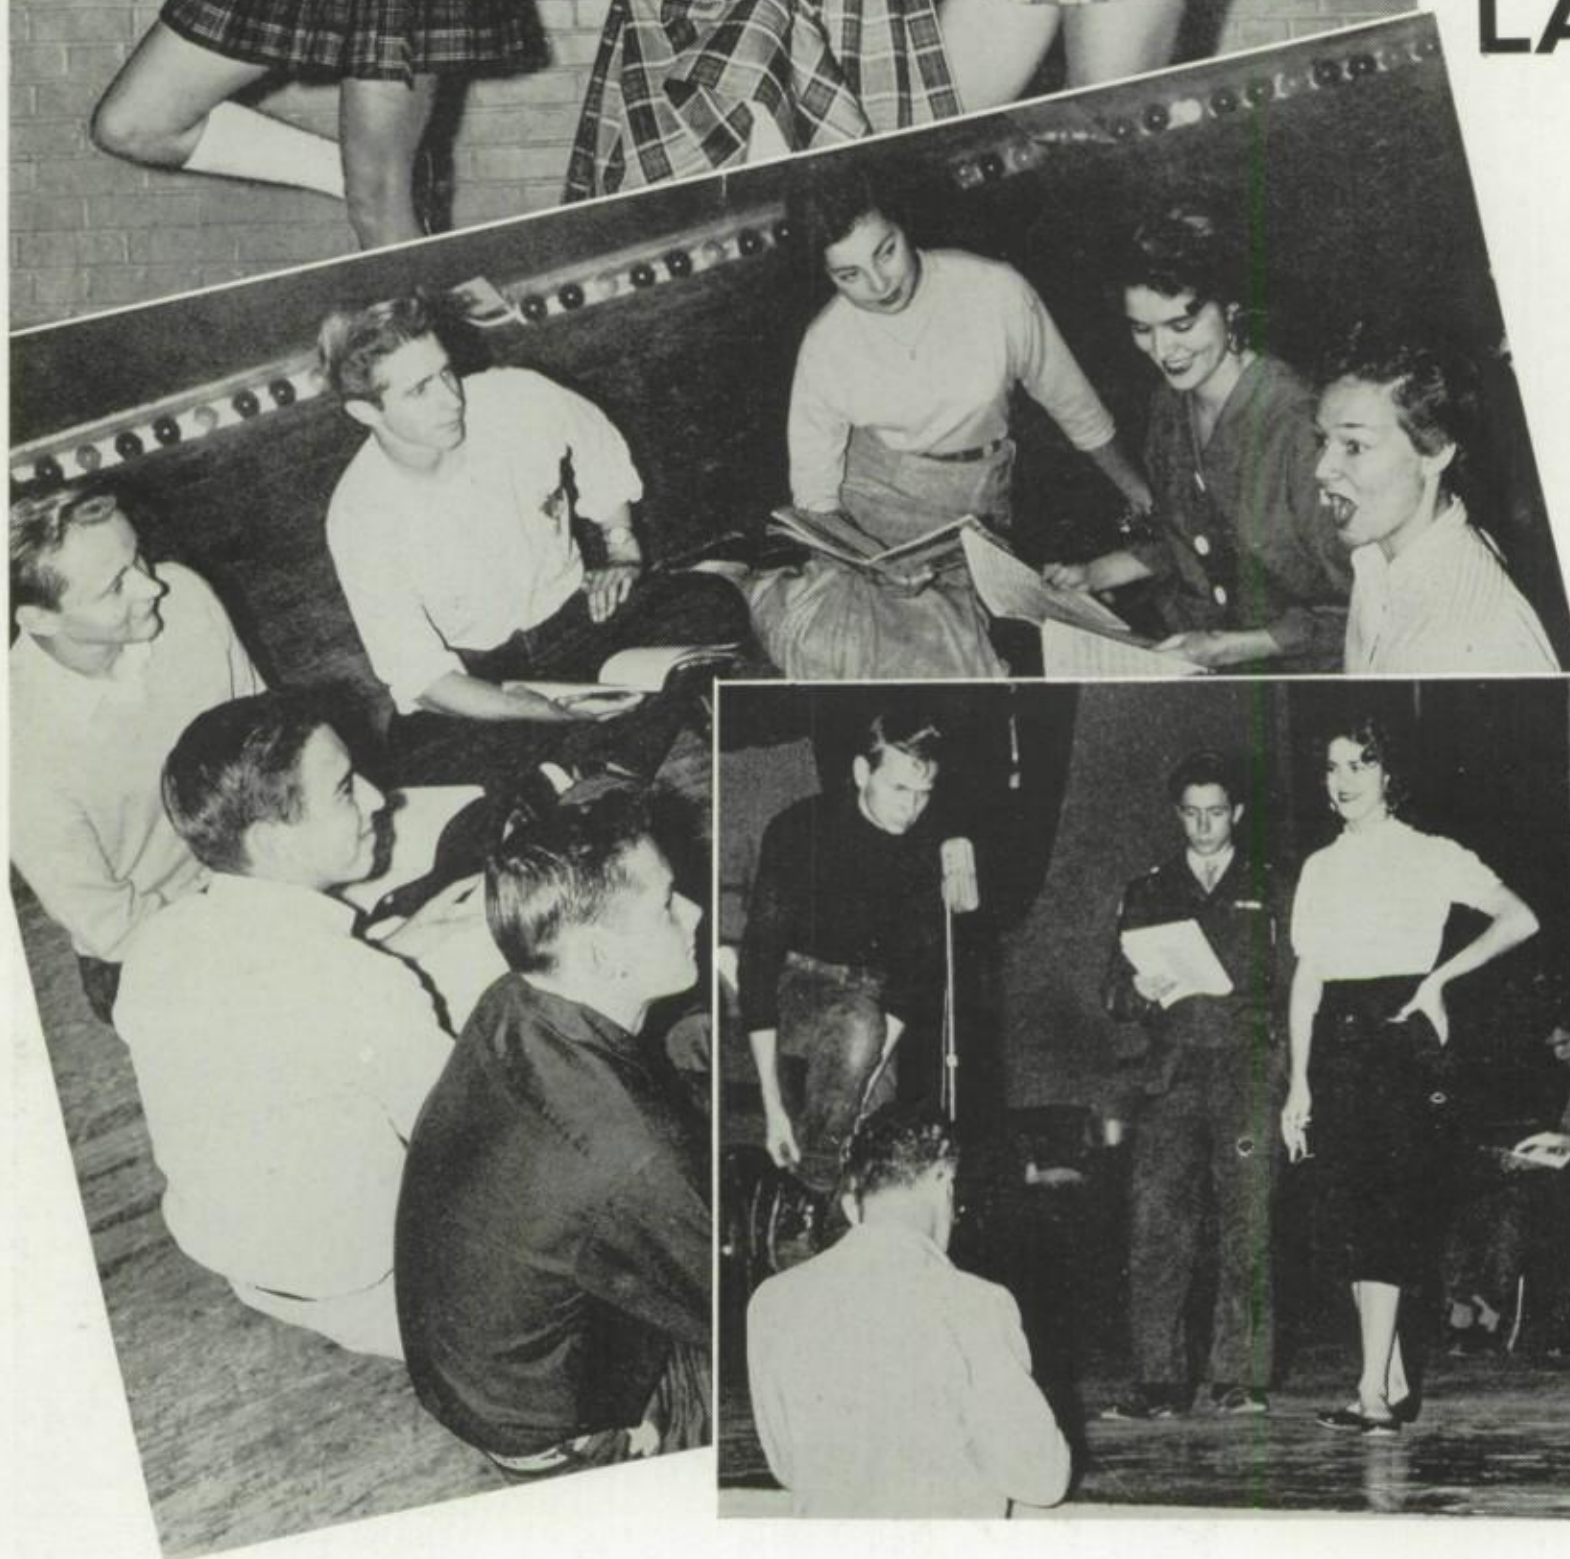

On the vocal side, Donna Riggs sang "Mister Wonderful" and Dorothy Dodd sang a selection of western numbers.

Adding to the entertainment of the assembly was the special lighting effects of the light crew headed by Dave Barker and Charles Parker's background organ music.

A goal of $1,200 was set by the Junior class this year for the annual Sadie Hawkins' Day campaign contributing to the March of Dimes Fund. One of their biggest money raising campaigns was the Mayor and Sweetheart of Dogpatch contest. The Juniors went all out to win this contest, and their two candidates, Lloyd Aycock and Louise Lyman, reigned.

Kick-a-poo Joy Juice, Polio balloons and Dogpatch newspapers were sold by all enthusiastic Juniors to complete their goal.

The day of Al Capp's characters invading our campus was brought to a climax with a sports dance held in the Mustang Corral.

RALLY

North Hi Mustangs prepared for the annual Thanksgiving Day game with Phoenix Union High School, with a Pep Rally the night before. This Rally was sponsored by the Pep Club Officers: Jim Waldron, Merrill Robbins and Dorothy Fischer. Under the sponsorship of Mr. Thomas Inman, North Hi's Pep Club issued Pom-pons and streamers to all holders of Pep Club cards.

Boys, coached by North Hi Pom-pon girls, entertained the students with their crazy outfits and antics.

Sharon Baldwin reigned as queen over the Rally, with her attendants Sharon Kellin, freshman; Nancy Ratts, sophomore; and Louise Lyman, junior.

Excilibur Hi-Y was presented a trophy for the most original car in that contest.

The Rally was completed with a sports dance in North High's gym, sponsored by the class of 1958.

SHY: Freshman girls seem to be afraid of the photographer as well as the boys.

DEBATING: Three freshman boys caught by the photographer debating whether they should ask a girl for a dance.

FRESHMAN MIXER

New freshmen were feted at a mixer in the North High Corral, at the beginning of the year. Hosted by the Boys' Alliance, refreshments were served and dancing was a main attraction.

At the annual mixer, freshmen are given a chance to acquaint themselves with fellow classmates and to adjust themselves to high school activities.

Shy freshmen were soon gathered in small groups until lured by the dance music.

With "Spring Silhouette" as its theme, the Girls' League presented its annual fashion show. Spring flowers proved a suitable background for the modeled summer fashions.

The annual show featured North High models and clothes from Korrick's. Toni Johnson provided the narration for the event. The models, who were chosen on the basis of poise and appearance, were Jeanne Abromovitz, Patty Jo Allen, Cathy Berkenkamp, Joan Day, Twila Fleckten, Gail Gentry, Judy Gnatt, Sally Lorenson, Gail Marsh, Gloria Mudersbach, Jo Ann Robert, Marcia Samuelson, Jacquie Semon, Truly Stevens, Carole Thomas and Sally Wilson.

The Freshman council arranged for the flowers while the Sophomore group took charge of all requisitions. The entertainment was selected by both Junior and Senior councils.

NORTH'S HOOFBEATS '56

EDITOR

This year the North High Hoofbeats staff has endeavored to publish the biggest and best annual that students have ever purchased.

Annual staff members working toward their goal of an early annual started the middle of last summer.

Many things must be accomplished before each student can have his annual. There are dummies to be drawn, pictures to take and print, and copy and captions to be written. Much work and effort have been put into this book now presented to you, the student.

Editor-in-Chief of this year's annual was Marilyn Citron. Section Editors were: Dorothy DeVore, student government; Jean Calvert, faculty; Dorothy Fischer, activities; Sally Hogan, freshmen and sophomores; Karen Webb, juniors and seniors; Ida Hocken, clubs and Jon Flach, sports.

Joan Willis served as Advertising Manager and her assistant was Gail Marsh. Business Manager was Georgann Lucas and Sales Manager was Sally Mitchell.

Art Editor Carole Thomas worked under Miss Frances Kapanke. Mr. Harold Williams served as photography adviser and Mr. M. J. Shimer as annual adviser.

Here is a book published by your fellow students, a combined effort of many people. Here you have an experiment in the Modern Form.

This is your 1956 annual.

ROUNDUP STAFFERS

This year The Mustang Roundup has done an unusually outstanding job of newspaper coverage on the campus, and has received National Scholastic Press Association and Columbia Scholastic Press Association first-class ratings.

Edited by Judy Jekel, the newspaper has initiated many new policies. Editorials have been concerned with not only campus, but community and national problems; sports pictures are always action shots and accompanying articles are fast moving; feature stories find the humor of campus life, and reveal interesting sidelights about teachers and students.

The A Cappella Choir, under the able leadership of Mr. Ben Denton, has completed a successful year. The choir consisted of approximately 95 members. Charles Parker was the choir president this school year.

Since the beginning of school last September, the choir has sung before many groups. At Christmas time, they sang for various service clubs and also gave the annual Christmas Assembly here at the school. The Madrigal singers appeared on television during the Christmas season also.

After the busy Holiday season, the choir prepared for their annual Midwinter Concert which was given on March 14th. During the latter part of March, the choir took an all-day singing tour. They sang at Chandler High School and also presented a program to Scottsdale Union High School.

On April 27, the choir participated in the Valley Music Festival, in which all Valley high school choirs take part to receive ratings. The choir, as usual, gave an outstanding performance and received a high rating.

The Tri-Hi-Y's and Hi-Y's play an important part on North's campus. Over 400 boys and girls are participating in this worthwhile organization. Many teachers take their time and energy to be sponsors of these clubs.

Mr. Duane Ruffin from the Y.W.C.A., is in charge of all the Tri-Hi-Y's and Hi-Y's throughout the city of Phoenix. Their goal is to extend throughout the home, school and community high standards of Christian character. These clubs have brought many new activities to North's campus. They have also brought many students closer with their various activities.

Each club has a service project of some kind. They work for these projects in every way possible. Besides the dues that each club has, they have other ways of raising money and donating their time. They have cake sales, car washes, rummage sales and many other service projects.

These clubs also put on a carnival each year for the students of North High. This carnival always has in store much fun with games, prizes, and food.

FIGHT! MUSTANGS FIGHT!

JUNIORS – SENIORS

This year the North High Pep Club under the direction of Jim Waldron, president; Merrill Robbins, vice president and Dorothy Fischer, secretary; have done much to bolster the spirit of fellow Mustangs.

Just one of the many advantages in belonging to the Pep Club was a reserved seat was made available for all members at the football games.

the Pep Club issued blue and red pom pons and crepe paper to students for decorating of cars for our big game with Phoenix Union High School.

Further plans were made this year to give either a plaque or medal to the outstanding girl athletes in tennis and the Girls' Athletic Association also were given plaques.

North's spirit was high this year at all games of all sports. This was made possible through our Pep Club.

Mr. Thomas Inman is Pep Club adviser.

MANAGERS

NORTH – 14 MESA – 14

Even though this was a tie game, it was a moral victory for us because we were the underdogs. Our first score was set up when Alan Sandell recovered a Mesa fumble. Then the Mustangs marched 45 yards and Lloyd Aycock scored from the two. North kicked off and Mesa's Livingston ran for an 82 yard touchdown. After that it was a hard fought battle but neither team was able to score. Frank Evans, Fred Lyddon, Alan Sandell, Bob Gray and Jon Marx were standouts in this game.

Butch Salmon (19) is tackled from behind by a Tucson player. Frank Evans (47) looks on.

NORTH – 0 AMPHI – 21

It was a sad day at Tucson on Oct. 9 when the Amphitheater Panthers shut out the Mustangs for the first time in 23 games. The injuries of halfback Lloyd Aycock and fullback Jon Marx hurt the Mustangs' offense. Amphi scored their three touchdowns on North fumbles and a pass interference penalty.

Pete Hjort (46) moves in on Mesa's Livingston (21).

NORTH – 14 TUCSON – 0

Lloyd Aycock paced the Mustangs to their victory over the Badgers. He had an average of 15.5 yards per carry. He also scored a touchdown on a pass play from Lyddon. Jon Marx scored the other on a 1 yard plunge. Dave Dunbar and Alan Sandell were also outstanding.

An Amphi ballcarrier is hit by an unidentified North player. Alan Sandell (44) and Tom Schultz (20) look on.

GLENDALE – 0

Due to Glendale fumbles, the Mustangs escaped an upset by the Cardinals. The Cardinals outplayed the Mustangs all through the game. One time the Mustangs made a brilliant goal line stand which stopped Glendale's chance of upsetting us. The absence of Lloyd Aycock, due to an ankle injury, hurt the Mustangs. Quarterback Fred Lyddon got the game's only touchdown against the Cardinals when he sneaked over from the 2 yard line in the second quarter. Marv Davis and Alan Sandell were outstanding on defense.

Schultz (20) closes in on Glendale ballcarrier.

NORTH – 7
WEST – 21

Too many fumbles gave West High their victory over North. North just couldn't seem to get going. The only long run for the Mustangs was by Tom Schultz when he intercepted a pass and went 50 yards. But we were unable to score after this break. The only score was by sophomore Rennie Crittenden on a one yard sneak.

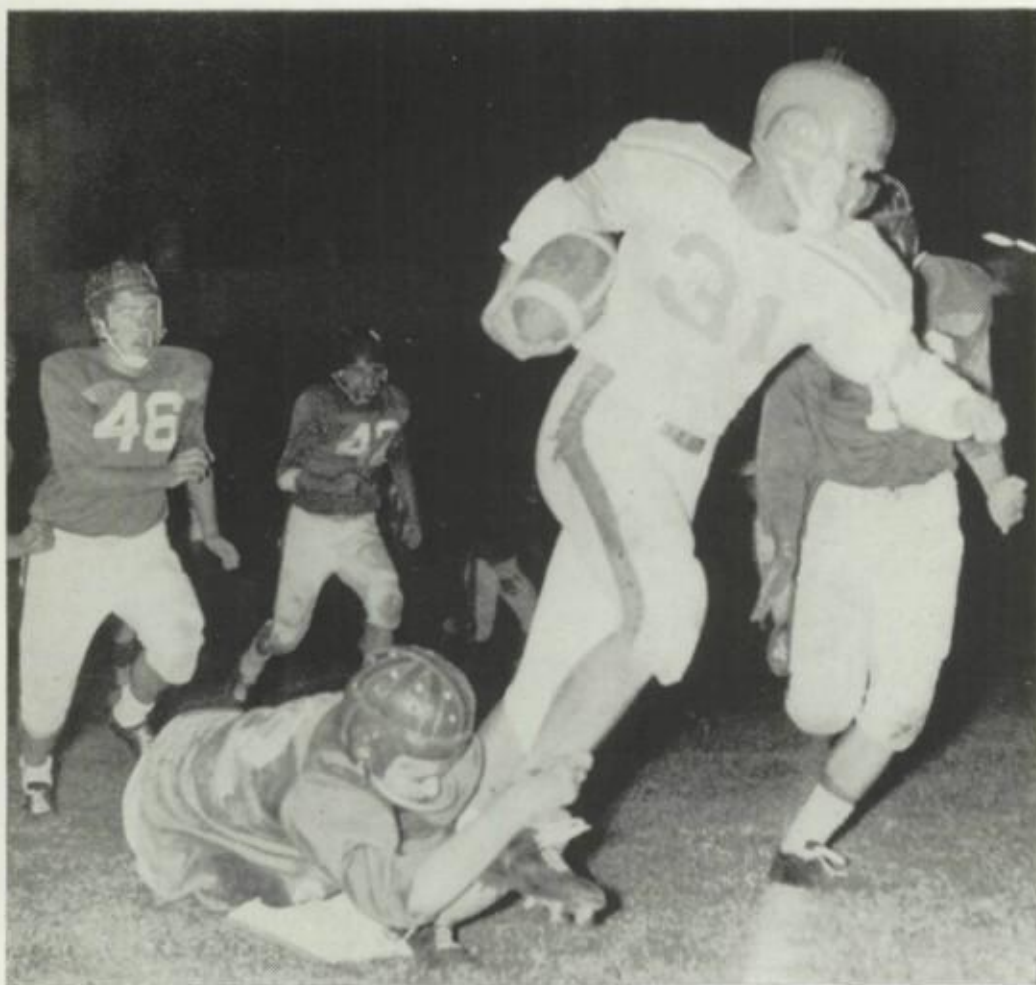

Lloyd Aycock is off on a 55 yard run against Yuma. Gray (49) and Marv Davis (42) look on.

Lloyd Aycock (32) jumps in the air to break up a West High pass play, and John Mackler comes in to assist.

NORTH – 14
YUMA – 21

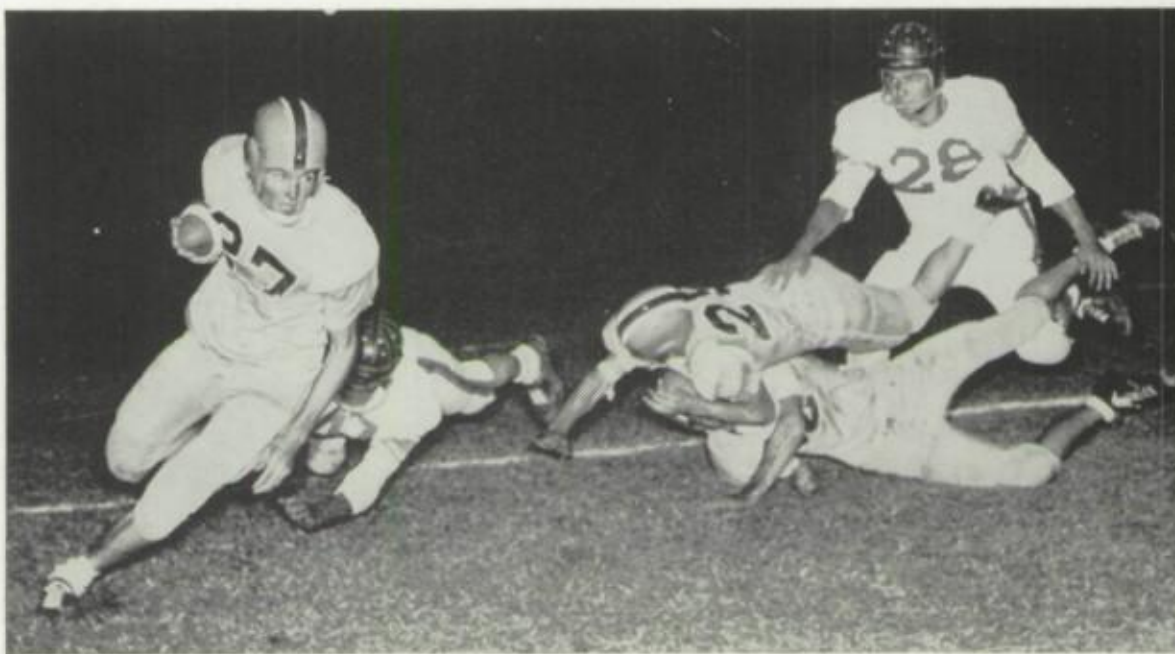

For a while it looked as if the Mustangs would come from behind and beat Yuma. But early in the fourth quarter Yuma made a touchdown that cinched the game. Scoring for North were Dave Dunbar with a 10 yard sprint and Lloyd Aycock with a 45 yard run.

An unidentified North player tackles McCormick (31) of Camelback. In background are Pete Hjort (46) and Marv Davis (42).

NORTH – 14 SOUTH – 14

The passing of Rennie Crittenden and running of Lloyd Aycock started us off strongly against South Mountain. But in the second half the Rebels went wild and tied the score. They almost upset us, but a fumble stopped that. Lloyd Aycock scored both our touchdowns. First Aycock plunged 1 yard for the TD. Then Rennie Crittenden passed to Aycock and he went 30 yards for the second touchdown.

Frank Evans (47) dives at the South Mountain ballcarrier, as two Rebels try to block Boley Ramson (28)

Dave Dunbar (35) tries to shake off two St. Mary's tacklers.

NORTH – 16 ST. MARY'S – 6

North's exceptionally strong line battered the Knight's defense in our victory over them. Our scoring was done by Lloyd Aycock with two runs, one for 1 yard and the other for 5 yards. In the third quarter when we had St. Mary's back to the goal line, Bob Gray crashed through to tackle Tiffany in the end zone to add 2 more points for North. The second half was mostly a defensive game.

TD: Unfortunately it was a touchdown for PU. The PU end has just caught a pass and went over for the touchdown. Arleigh Beighler (17) looks on. UPPER RIGHT: Coach Coleman works out some strategy after the Phoenix Union score. LOWER RIGHT: Lloyd Aycock is being stopped by PU tacklers, but he has moved far enough to score for North and tie up the game. An unidentified North player leads interference.

Our Defense Holds

Alan Sandell (44) helps on a tackle of PU ballcarrier. Pete Hjort (46) comes in to assist. In the background are Bob Gray (49), Dean Anthony (40), Davis (42), and Dallas Long (48).

A PU ballcarrier is hit by an unidentified North player. Pete Hjort (46), Dallas Long (48), and Boley Ramson are coming in to help. John Mackler looks on.

Cathy -

Everything sure has been fun this year. I'm glad I got to see you more and mess around a lot.

After your trip this summer, let's do a lot of things. You know for awhile there I never thought we were going to make it through Chemistry, but thanks to that last minute cramming I guess we did. And don't forget those ugly old college boards! They're terrible but next year maybe they won't be so bad. I sure have enjoyed everything we have done together this year.

You're one of the funnest girls that I know. Let's make next year just as fun and have a complete blast! Have a wonderful wonderful time this summer and I'll see you around.

Judy

Cathy -
Loads of luck to a real sweet girl. You have so much to be proud of. Have fun this summer, I know you will. Love Bradford

Best of luck Cathy!
Keep on being the good kid
